For a nome, attractive on account of its temperate climate, free from the extremes of the West and the cyclones and heat of the South, as well as on account of its productive soil, adapted to the cultivation of the cereals, and fruit, and its facilities for raising improved stock of all kinds, the Shenandoah Valley presents inducements which, we are not surprised to learn, are now attracting the attention of the inhabitants of many less favored sections.

A VALUABLE BOOK .- A Treatise on the Horse. This little book is of special value to every horseman and to every owner of a horse. It conttains an Index of Diseases, giving a discription of each, with causes, symptoms and treatment. It has a large collection of receipts of which many single receipts are worth, to every horse ownr, several times the price of the book. The treatment given for each disease a can be relied on. It also gives engravings showing the position taken in the different stages of disease. It not only gives the names of medicines used in different diseases but also gives the proper doses. No horse owner can afford to do without this book which gives you as accurate and valuable informa tion as that given in books costing from five to ten dollars. Price Twenty-five cents. But this standard of moral duty being imperfectly recognized moral duty being imperfectly recognized by the law, it will be interesting to review the decisions on this subject.

1. The finder need not take charge of the lost property. There is no legal duty on him to do it; but if he does take it into his possession, he then be-comes a depository, and is bound to keep it for the owner and restore it to him when known. To The Irade .

May 17th,-tf.

It gives us great pleasure to announce and we doubt not it will give our customers and friends equal pleasure to learn, that at the great SOUTHERN EXPOSITION at Louisville just closed, we made almost a clean sweep of all the highest honors upon one exhibit of "OLO HICK-ORY" Farm and Log Wagons. "AMERICAN" Dumplog Wagons, and "LUDLOW" Spring Wagons. Out of tweawards for which we competed, we received the highest premiums for three and the second highest premiums for the other two, as follows, to wit:—

accound highest premiums for the other two, as follows, to wit:

The highest premium — a Medal for the Best Display of Wagons.
The highest premium — a Medal for the Best Machine Made Farm Wagon.
The highest premium — a Medal for the Best Two horse Dump Wagon.
The second highest premium: a Certificate for our exhibit of Log Wagons.
The second highest premium: a Certificate for our exhibit of Spring Wagons.
Considering the National character of this Exposition—the fourth largest ever held in the Worldand the great competition which existed among Masufacturers for its premiums, we feel a just pried in the result.

We remow to our customers and the trade the assurance made after carrying away the highest honors at the ATLANTA COTTON EXPOSITION of 1881, that we shall not be content to rest upon honors already won, but shall leave nothing undone to maintain and increase the high reputation which now attaches to all vehicles of our manufacture.

With our best wishes for the prosperity of our customers and the trade generally.

We remain very truly yours,
